

A despicable act

The Suburban, Sep. 17, 1968

Last weekend, cowardly vandals attacked Back River Memorial Gardens at Sauvé and St. Denis, overturning and breaking a number of gravestones. Among them was the marker of this child who died in 1939, who lies mute and unable to defend his memory against a wanton and senseless act of cruelty committed against him nearly 60 years after his death.